

Limi Valley Trek - 17 Days

A scenically and culturally diverse trek over two high passes into the most remote region of western Nepal. The ancient gompas and fortress-like stone villages of Jang, Haliji and Til are unquestionably the highlight of the trek.

This lengthy trek takes you deep into a little-visited corner of Nepal where the resilient people of the Limi Valley continue to practise age-old Tibetan traditions. Seasonably isolated by snow and ice and surrounded by Himalayan Peaks, this trek follows ancient trade routes featuring timeless monasteries and villages, yak meadows and glacial streams.
