

PHOKSUNDO BON CULTURAL TREK - 12 Days

Dolpo is rich in culture and religion. Both Bon and Buddhist followers are residing in Dolpo, Phoksundo is the settlement of Bonpos and they have been following this for so many decades. Phoksundo Lake, Phoksundo Waterfalls, cultural Rigmo village, Kanjirowa, Teikatong, Norbukang, Pugmo village, and four lakes are the key attractions of the region.

The Bon religion is an ancient spiritual tradition that predates Tibetan Buddhism and is practiced by some communities in the Himalayan region, including in Dolpo, Nepal. Phoksundo Ringmo Village and Pugmo Village are known for their strong connection to the Bon religion, and you can find several Bon monasteries and practitioners in the area.

The Bon religion has its unique cosmology, rituals, and deities, though it shares some similarities with Tibetan Buddhism due to historical interactions between the two traditions. Bon practitioners often engage in rituals, ceremonies, and meditation to connect with spiritual forces and achieve enlightenment.

In Phoksundo Ringmo Village, you may have the opportunity to witness Bon ceremonies, visit Bon monasteries, and learn more about this ancient spiritual tradition from local practitioners.

In the Phoksundo region, some Bon Monasteries are Thasung Tsoiling, Namgyal Lhakhang, Shugrinyisar Retreat Gomba, and Pugmo Gomba.
